StarDream Cruises Announces Three-Year Star Voyager Seasonal Deployment in Singapore

Expanded sailings offer travellers more ways to discover Southeast Asia by sea, strengthening Singapore's position as a regional cruise gateway and Fly-Cruise hub.

19 November 2026, Singapore – StarDream Cruises, home to StarCruises and Dream Cruises has announced a three-year seasonal deployment of StarCruises' Star Voyager in Singapore through 2029, in partnership with the Singapore Tourism Board (STB).

The deployment will provide travellers with more cruise itineraries to explore Southeast Asia by sea, while creating opportunities to attract regional and international fly-cruise visitors to sail from Singapore.

> "Singapore has been an important market for our cruise operations for more than 30 years, and the seasonal deployment of Star Voyager builds on our long-standing presence here. Through our partnership with STB, we look forward to offering travellers more opportunities to discover Asia by sea, while contributing to Singapore's continued growth as a leading cruise hub in the region," said Michael Goh, President of StarDream Cruises.
> "We value our longstanding partnership with StarDream Cruises and our shared commitment to growing Singapore's cruise industry. The three-year seasonal deployment of Star Voyager, alongside Genting Dream's year-round sailings, reflects the cruise line's continued confidence in Singapore as a leading cruise hub. Together, we are unlocking more ways for travellers to discover Asia, while giving international visitors even more reasons to choose Singapore as their gateway to the region," said Jean Ng, Assistant Chief Executive, Experience Development Group, Singapore Tourism Board.

More Cruise Holiday Choices with Star Voyager
With itineraries departing from Singapore, Star Voyager will take travellers to destinations across Southeast Asia, including Jakarta, Krabi, Phuket, Melaka, Langkawi, Penang, Port Klang (Kuala Lumpur), Pulau Pangkor and more. The mix of vibrant cities, cultural gems, coastal escapes and island getaways, across a range of cruise durations, means there is something for every traveller.

On board, guests can enjoy international entertainment, signature events, regional-themed programmes and diverse dining and leisure options. Highlights include the signature Red Carpet Gala, international live performances and locally inspired themed activities, catering to couples, families and groups of friends.

Singapore As Your Homeport and Holiday Destination
Singapore's strong international air connectivity and diverse tourism products and experiences make us an attractive homeport and cruising destination for international fly-cruise visitors. Travellers can also extend their stays to enjoy Singapore's attractions and events before or after their cruise trips, generating greater tourism value.

With a capacity of around 2,000 passengers, Star Voyager's mid-sized profile enables access to a wider range of ports across Southeast Asia bringing more cruise visitors to regional destinations. This creates opportunities for our regional partners to benefit from increased tourism spending on shore excursions, attractions and local businesses, while supporting the development of new cruise destinations and strengthening Southeast Asia's collective appeal as a cruising region.

Looking ahead, improved cross-border connectivity is also expected to enhance Singapore's accessibility as a cruising destination. Whether arriving by the upcoming Johor Bahru–Singapore Rapid Transit System (RTS) Link or flying in from further afield, travellers can easily pair their cruise with a stay in Singapore before or after sailing.
