

Dream Cruises Unveils Exciting 2026/2027 Cruise Itineraries

New 3, 4 and 5 Night Cruises to Bangkok, Koh Samui, Pulau Redang and Bali.

Dream Cruises launches Genting Dream's 2026/2027 New Season Itineraries!

30 September 2025 (Singapore / Kuala Lumpur) – Dream Cruises is thrilled to unveil its highly anticipated 2026/2027 cruise season, featuring a refreshed lineup of 2,3,4 and 5 Night Cruise itineraries aboard the beloved Genting Dream - inviting travellers to rediscover the beauty and diversity of Southeast Asia.

The new season builds on Dream Cruises' signature short getaways with exciting additions to the lineup: 3 Night Cruises to Pulau Redang, 4 Night Cruises to Koh Samui and Pulau Redang and 5 Night Cruises to Bangkok (via Laem Chabang) and Koh Samui. The popular 5 Night Bali Cruise, first introduced for the November 2025 school holidays, will also make a return in December 2026.

All these new offerings will be alongside the ever-popular 2 Night Weekend Cruise, 2 Night Melaka Cruise and 3 Night Phuket Cruise. In addition to expanded departures from Singapore, the season also marks the return of Kuala Lumpur (via Port Klang) and Melaka as departure ports - giving travellers greater flexibility and the option to begin their cruise from the location most convenient to them.

"We're thrilled to welcome guests onboard for a season packed with discovery, relaxation and the vibrant cultures of Southeast Asia," said Michael Goh, President of StarDream Cruises. "From quick 2 and 3 Night escapes to Melaka, Penang and Phuket, to extended 4 and 5 Night adventures to Bangkok, Koh Samui, Bali and Pulau Redang, our 2026/2027 lineup is designed for every kind of traveller - delivered with the exceptional service and luxury that define Dream Cruises."

What's New: The 2026/2027 Genting Dream Lineup
