

StarCruises Introduces Fresh Short Break Cruises from Hong Kong with Star Voyager, Featuring Sanya & Xiamen Highlights

New 2 and 3 Night itineraries available from 13 February to 29 March 2026.

13 Feb - 29 Mar 2026: Star Voyager debuts its refreshed short-cruise offerings from Hong Kong, sailing to Sanya and Xiamen on 2 and 3 Night itineraries.

12 December 2025 (Hong Kong) – StarCruises is pleased to announce the introduction of its 2 Night Xiamen Cruise and 3 Night Sanya Cruise as part of Star Voyager's upcoming 2026 Hong Kong homeport season. Departing from the centrally located Ocean Terminal - one of Hong Kong's most accessible locations - these sailings will operate from 13 February to 29 March 2026, offering travellers convenient access to China's vibrant southern coastal destinations.

Perfect for quick getaways, these short cruises provide guests with flexible weekend or mid-week escapes while showcasing the scenic beauty, rich culture and local cuisine of Sanya and Xiamen. By inviting more travellers to embark from Hong Kong, the itineraries also contribute to the city's tourism economy and foster stronger connections with these coastal destinations, making it easier than ever for guests to explore the region.

"We are excited to be returning to Hong Kong in February for the 2026 season," said Michael Goh, President of StarDream Cruises. "These new 2 and 3 Night cruises are designed to meet the growing demand for shorter, more flexible holidays, while also encouraging more visits and engagement with the different vibrant coastal destinations, including Sanya and Xiamen."

New Short Cruise Highlights

- 3 Night Cruises to Sanya – “Tropical Escape to Sanya”
