A Dynamic Onboard Experience

Performed in the specially equipped Zodiac Theatre aboard both ships, Cookin' NANTA delivers the high-energy, interactive entertainment that has captivated over 15.5 million people worldwide across 326 cities in 61 countries. This maritime edition preserves the original's thrilling percussion rhythms, slapstick comedy and kitchen choreography, adapted to the unique cruise theatre environment. Guests have the option to purchase their Cookin' Nanta show tickets either before the cruise or onboard the ship at the Box Office counter. Tickets are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

"We're delighted to bring NANTA onboard our ships this season," said Michael Goh, President of StarDream Cruises. "This is more than just a show - it's an immersive cultural experience that transcends language and borders, now set against the stunning backdrop of the open sea on both our cruise ships, the Genting Dream and Star Navigator."

Immersive Korean Cultural Activities

To complement the performances, guests can also enjoy a rich lineup of Korean cultural programming onboard the ships, including:

- K-pop dance classes
- Traditional Korean craft workshops
- K-beauty demonstrations and skincare tutorials
- Korean cooking experiences and tastings
- Hanbok (traditional clothing) photo opportunities

This immersive programming offers a unique way to engage with both Korea's modern pop culture and traditional heritage while cruising at sea.
