StarDream Cruises Unveils 2026 Asia Experiences and Celebrates Dream Cruises 10th Anniversary.

Announced during a Raya Open House onboard Genting Dream ahead of its first 2026 Port Klang sailing.

20 April 2026: StarDream Cruises unveiled its 2026 highlights during a Raya Open House onboard Genting Dream, coinciding with her first 2026 Port Klang sailing.

[22 April 2026, Port Klang, Malaysia] – Staying true to its "Knows Asia Best" brand promise, StarDream Cruises — home to StarCruises and Dream Cruises — is bringing the best of Asia closer to Malaysians with an expanded and exciting line-up of sailings from Port Klang, Singapore and across the region in 2026.

Marking the start of Dream Cruises' 2026 sailing season from Port Klang, the cruise line's flagship Genting Dream made her first departure on 20 April 2026, ushering in a vibrant year of celebrity-led experiences, destination-inspired itineraries and world-class lifestyle entertainment at sea in celebration of Dream Cruises' 10th anniversary. The announcement was made during a special Raya Open House onboard Genting Dream, which coincided with her inaugural 2026 sailing from Port Klang.

Guests can look forward to an exciting line-up of special, star-powered sailings, featuring Chef Tommie Lee (also known as French Papa) from Culinary Class Wars from 3–5 May 2026, the debut of Forever Broadway in June 2026, Amotti from Netflix's Physical: 100 from 26–28 July 2026, and rising K-pop group KIIRAS from 25–27 October 2026.

To mark the milestone, Dream Cruises has launched a limited-time anniversary promotion, offering guests a Buy One Get One Free deal on all Genting Dream sailings, while the 3rd and 4th passengers sharing the same cabin enjoy a special rate of only RM10 per person.

Maybank Mastercard and Visa credit card members will also enjoy an additional 5% off all Dream Cruises and StarCruises sailings, exclusively available on www.StarDreamCruises.com, offering the perfect opportunity for guests to experience the StarDream Cruises fleet at exceptional value.

Adding to the excitement, its sister brand StarCruises will present a special highlight as Malaysia's beloved culinary icon Chef Wan makes a highly anticipated return at sea aboard Star Voyager. He will headline a special 3Night Phuket–Penang sailing from Port Klang (22–25 May 2026), bringing his signature local flavours to life through an exclusive culinary showcase, enriched with his vibrant storytelling. Guests will also have the opportunity to enjoy his specially curated dishes at The Lido buffet, making the experience even more memorable, perfectly timed for the local school holidays.

This will be followed by two additional 2 Night Phuket cruises departing from Port Klang on 25 and 27 May 2026. More exciting sailings from Singapore will also be available, offering even greater flexibility for regional travellers.

Homegrown in Asia with a strong connection to Malaysia, StarDream Cruises continues to deliver thoughtfully curated experiences tailored to diverse travellers. Guests can indulge in a world-class culinary journey featuring international cuisines, alongside certified Halal and Jain vegetarian dining options, offering added convenience and peace of mind, especially for Muslim travellers.

Beyond onboard entertainment and dining, StarDream Cruises is also bringing guests closer to some of Malaysia's most sought-after leisure destinations, with short getaway sailings to Penang, Malacca, Pulau Redang, Tioman Island and Pangkor Island. These itineraries not only provide easy, hassle-free escapes for families and holidaymakers, but also support inbound tourism and showcase Malaysia's rich coastal and island offerings.

Across its growing network, StarDream Cruises connects travellers to more than 50 destinations throughout Southeast and East Asia, delivering a dynamic mix of themed entertainment, culturally inspired programmes and enriching experiences for guests of all ages.

For those seeking an elevated escape, The Palace — StarDream Cruises' exclusive "ship-within-a-ship" concept — offers luxurious suites, personalised butler service and premium privileges, creating a truly private and bespoke holiday experience at sea.

This rising demand for seamless, multi-destination holidays is reflected in the cruise line's strong regional performance, with StarDream Cruises recording over 1.4 million inbound passenger arrivals into Malaysian ports and over 220,000 outbound passengers from Malaysia since inception in 2022 until to date.

> "This year, we are bringing together the very best of Asia — from its destinations and cuisine to its entertainment and culture — into one unforgettable holiday experience for our guests," said Michael Goh, President of StarDream Cruises. "As Dream Cruises celebrates its 10th anniversary, we are proud to strengthen our presence in Malaysia and support Malaysia's momentum towards Visit Malaysia 2026*. By homeporting in* Port Klang*, we are making cruising more accessible for Malaysians while positioning Malaysia as a key gateway for cruise travel across Asia,"* he added.
